From the Southern Patriot. The two Dogs-A Fable. Two neighboring dogs, when dogs could talk, Agreed to take an evening walk; And as they sauntered here and there, Thus spoke the moralizing pair:

"How comes it, consin," said the one, "That after all that I have done, In faithful watching day and night, And putting thieves and rogues to flight. I searce can get a pleasant word, Or een a look of kind regard-While you, a little idle wight, Sleep soundly on a rug at night, And eat and drink, and romp and play, Amongst the children all the day; Yea, e'en 'tis said, your master's hand, Clasped 'round your neek that pretty band?"

This said, the favored and caressed In courtly phrase himself expressed: 'Alas! my friend, your honest face Unfits you for a lofty place; Your faithfuluces is e'en a curse, And only makes your prospects worse; And to be plain, I fear you'll die In that same shed you occupy. 'Tis therefore needless to disclose The ways and means by which I rose, And yet it may not be too late To mend your ways and change your state.

"Instead of truth and honesty, I practised guile and flattery ; The greatest knaves I make my friends, If they can but advance my ends, And in the kitcken, court and hall, Have pleasant words and looks for all; I wag my tail whene'er I meet A genteel stranger in the street, And make obedience as I pass, E'en to old neighbor Grime's ass"-

"Enough, enough," his friend replied, With scowling look and noble pride-"Still let me eat my crust of bread, Uncared for in my lowly shed, And lat me breathe my dying groan, Neglected, slighted and waknown, Before I change my honesty, For cunning and duplicity."

Apply your fable, some may say, Give us the moral, sir, we pray! 'Tis needless, sirs, do you not see How rascals strut in dignity, While plain and honest men are crushed. And troden in the very dust?

All communications and letters on business with this offer much proud of them, they were so plump remainders and the proud of them, they were so plump remainders. A minister in one of our orthodox churches, while on his way to preach a funeral sermon in the country, called to see one of his members, an old widow lady, who lived near the road he was travelling. The old fady had just been making sausages, and she felt proud of them, they were so plump, round and sweet. Of course she insisted on her minister taking some of the links home to his family. He objected on account of his family. He objected on account of his family. The objected on account of his most elegant Goods ever offered in Augusta. will be charged as advertisements.

Proud of them, they were so pump, round and sweet. Of course she insisted on her and sweet. Of course she insisted on her minister taking some of the links home to his family. He objected on account of his not having his portmanteau along. This objection was soon overruled, and the old lady after wrapping them up in a rag, carefully placed a bundle in each pocket of the preacher's capacious coat. Thus equipped, he started for the funeral.

While attending to the solemn ceremonies of the grave, some hungry dogs scented the sausages, and were not long in tracking them to the pockets of the good man's overcoat. Of course this was a great annovance, and he was several times under the necessity of kicking these whelps away. The obsequies at the grave completed, the congregation repaired to the church where the funeral discourse was to be preached.

After the sermon was finished, the minister halted to make some remarks to the congregation, when a brother, who wished to have an appointment given out, ascended the steps of the pulpit, and gave the minis-ter's coat a hitch, to get his attention. The divine thinking it a dog having a design upon his pocket, raised his foot, gave a sud den kick and sent the good brother sprawling to the steps.

"You will excuse me, brethren and sis ters!" said the minister, confused, and without looking at the work he had just done, out looking at the work he had just done,

A CLAP OF THUNDER FROM A CLOUD LESS SKY .- An interesting scene took place at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday last,-The day was very sultry. Mr. Bryant had completed his morning sermon, the last hynn was sung, the blessing was pronounced, and as Amen passed his lips a clap of thunder electrified the whole congregation. All stood for a moment amazed, gazing at each other with astonishment. Some supposed a gun was discharged at the instant, for the report was something like a powder explosion. Others supposed the rod of the church was struck. There was no cloud hanging over or near, and the sun was shining brightly. There was a cloud apparently about six miles to the northward, from which lightning undoubtedly shot off and descended near the river above the old bridge.-Nilis (Mich.) Republican.

Not long ago a distinguished divine of Boston was walking with a friend past a new church, in which another distinguished divine is the spiritual shepherd.

The Market St. MEDICAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

When the R. R. Theory was first declared to the world, skeptical persons doubted in correctness, and looked with distrast on the remedies it possessed. Others however, struck with the originality of its views and conceeding merit to the theory, were induced to try if the remedies bore out in practice what was claimed for them in theory. A third class differing from the others and perhaps more numerous, without consideing for a moment any merit they might be entitled to, tried them, merely as a venture, growing out of a desire for something new. We are satisfied with the result, for the public has received the benefit and R. R. R. Theory has triumphed. Not a day passes that we do not have admission from some hitherto unbeliever that their skepticism was unfounded and convinced by reading our Family Friend, have proved by their own experience, the infallibility of our medicines. Not a day passes that we do not receive grateful testimonials of curee effected by these Medicines. "I was seized with cramps and spasms last night says one, and had it not been for Radaway's Ready Relief I should have died with the pain." Another says, "my wife was slowly sinking with an affection of the Lungs and my neighbor was suffering from Scrofula,—I have seen them both restored to the Lungs and my neighbor was suffering from Scrofula,—I have seen them both restored to health by Radway's Removating Resolvent. A third say, "Radway's Regulators have cursed me of habitual costiveness that was the burden of my life." Such are the characteristic testimonials we daily recive of the R. R. Remedies.

RADWAY'S READY REMER, the first of the R. R. R. remedies, is the most quick and safe remedy that has ever yet been discovered for the instant relief of all ACUTE OR CHRONIC: instant relief of all ACUTE OR CHRONIC:
PAINS. It is a certain disonfectant and will neutralize the most violent poisons of Malignant Epidemics. If the human system is seized with the virulence of Cholers, Small-Pox, Ship Fever, Pneumonia, or other fatal poisons, Radway's Ready Relief used in connection with Radway's Regulators, will check the violence of the disease, neutralize the infection, and will not only protect the system against sudden not only protect the system against sudden death, but will restore the body to health and strength. We make this assertion boldly, and if any Physician or Chemist doubts the great power which we claim for our Ready Relief. over malignant pains, let them examine it and test it, it will bear the test.

RHEUMATISM.

PAINS stopped in a few minutes. The moment Radway's Ready Relief is applied to the parts afflicted with rheumatic pains, whether it be in the knee joint, the arms, legs, feet or loins all, pain and anguish ceases.

pain and anguish ceases.

CRIPPLED FOR TWENTY YEARS. Mr. Charles M. Johnston, Nashville, was crippled with a chronic rheumatism for twenty years. He purchased from J. M. Zimmerman one bottle of Ready Relief, and one box of Regulators. The Ready Relief was applied as soon as it was obtained. In twenty minutes he was free from pain: In twenty-four hours he could stand alone. In four days he could walk alone. By the use of the Resolvent, Relief and Regulators, in one month he was entirely cured.

A lady aged 85, had been crippled for feets, could not raise her hand to her head. One bettle of R. R. Relief removed all pain and stiffness, created new life within her disabled body, restored each limb and joint to a strong rigorous and healthy condition. The lady is well known in Asheville, N. C. Thomas W. Atkin, Esq., editor of the Asheville News, published the case in his paper on the 18th of October 1853.
